The BULLETIN

June 6, 1969

"A COLLEGE AT CAMELOT" TO BE COMMENCEMENT TOPIC

Louis H. Heilbron, former chairman of the California State Colleges Board of Trustees, has chosen "There

Once Was a College at Camelot" as his topic for the commencement address at CSCSB June 13, Gerard Faber, Associate professor of Music at California Baptist College and part-time member of the CSCSB music faculty, will be the organist for commencement. He is dean of the San Bernardino-Riverside Chapter of the American Guild of Organists.

No tickets will be required to attend commencement, set for 8 p.m. on Friday, June 13, in the Gym.

ECONOMICS MAJOR GRANTED APPROVAL

The Social Sciences Division has received official approval from the Chancellor of its proposal for an Economics major.

The major will be open to Freshmen and Sophomores in the 1969-70 academic year.

Three full-time faculty members will teach in the Economics area: Assistant Professor Gary Pickersgill and two new faculty members, Jess Eugene Van Derwalker, Assistant Professor, and Leonard Mbogua, Lecturer, who will be arriving on campus in the fall.

P.E. FACILITIES OPEN DAILY DURING SUMMER

The Physical Education Department announced today that the P.E. courts, pool, and facilities will be open daily, seven days a week, during the summer from 11 a.m. to 7 p.m.

An equipment attendant and lifeguard will be on duty. The facilities are for use by summer school students, faculty and staff. Students, faculty or staff who were on campus during the Spring term will also be extended recreational privileges during the summer, but must be prepared to show their Spring term I.D. card.

Faculty, staff and students and their spouses are considered college community members.

SPEAKERS BUREAU The first CSCSB Speakers Bureau brochure has BROCHURE AVAILABLE arrived from the State Printer. Copies have been distributed.

Anyone who wants a copy may pick one up at the College Relations office. Speakers are available on a wide variety of subjects.

The Class of '69 has selected as its gift to the College a CSCSB sign, the first of its kind to be installed campus-wide. Designed by consulting architect Richard Dorman, the sign is European in style and will be placed at the new entrance to the campus now under construction.

Two hundred dollars was raised by the graduating class through the sale of toy St. Bernards, which is somewhat under the actual cost of the sign completely installed.
